Farragut Community Discussion

Nancy Bolon · 1 hour ago · 😂

I am 100% in support of freedom of speech but I do find that name calling against others is immature and is a direct reflection on the candidates they represent. It is my opinion, if you cannot speak without such name calling and resort to creating "cartoons" your candidates should consider finding another spokesperson. This is a not a good look and not what Farragut residents represent.

Nancy Bolon well I've been called sexist and the 1100+ members of the FCRGD have been told they support sexism by a sitting Alderman and candidate. Waiting for the condemnation on those comments.

All I am saying is Mr. Murphy has a freedom of speech right to send out his opinions. You are free to provide rebuttal.

My point, people should not make a decision about a candidate based on the opinion of Mr. Murphy, you or me. They should speak to the candidates directly and find out what they believe, look at their past votes and actions. Vote on that. That is my opinion.

Still waiting for the condemnation of the candidate who called us names and personally impuned our character. So far, one has said his comments were not right. What say you?

Michael Wilson Just for clarity, please confirm that you condone Mr. Murphy's posts? Also, do you know whether Johns, Atherton & White do as well? He's advising them, as you well know.

The voters have a right to know who the candidates align with.

Michael Wilson Mike, I don't speak for any candidate so I cannot answer your question. (and I have never seen what you are referring to because I am not a member of that group) I do believe there has been intimidation by some of the men towards the woman, which is very unfortunate. As a woman, I can speak to the childish cartoon characters and name calling, it's embarrassing. You are correct, Mr. Murphy can say whatever he wishes to say but when he is representing a candidate, it reflects on said candidate. If Mr. Atherton and Mr. Johns are pleased with their chief advisor/ spokesperson, so be it. I would be looking for someone a bit

I cannot speak for the three people running for office and if they condone what Sean says. As I told someone else, don't take Seans' opinion, your opinion or mine to decide who to vote for. Call the candidate and speak to them and vote based on that conversation.

See I don't hang what Scott said about me and the FCRGD group on the Mayor or Marty - even though they seem to be running their campaigns together out of the space next to your gym. I treat them individually and would evaluate each candidate separately. I doubt Mayor and probably Marty would condone Scotts' comments.

I dont believe that Sean has said he is speaking on behalf of any candidate either. He has posted his opinions and challenged others with differing opinions to send them to him and he will post them too.

You can still see my rebuttal on ND and I can send you the original post if you are interested in reading it.

Leading the way with the politics of personal destruction of the only female member of BOMA.
Who, by the way, is not on the ballot. Are Johns, Atherton & White proud of the infantile behavior of their advisor and the man they chose to lead their candidate forum? Not to mention the continuing overtones of misogyny.

As a reminder, the Vice Mayor is not on the ballot. The continuing focus on her (a pronoun for a female), is insulting to every woman.

These three must make a decision. We're with Sean and the continued nonsense, or we're not.

These candidates are tied to each other and Sean. They must publicly distance themselves from him and clearly state that they will no longer accept any endorsement or promotion of their campaign on his "press" site. The lot of them (including their minions that repost his nonsense on social media) are insulting everyone in Farragut, especially women.

Those that choose not to disavow themselves from him insult every voter in Farragut, and they will take note.

Jay Povlin nice speech. So we must see things your way or else we are banished?

As I said, I don't agree with everything he says or everything you say. He has the right to his opinions and so do you.

Seems the only political attack you have is against Sean. You don't seem to want to discuss any of the ideas these candidates have brought - like listening to the people, establishing an emergency preparedness plan for Farragut, etc.

Just a Louise is not on the ballot; neither is Sean. He pulled his petitions before the deadline.

To me, you both play to your base supporters. He speaks out against Louise and you speak out against him. Kind-of cancel each other out, IMO

Let's see if the others are even willing to hold a meeting with the people. So far. No word that they have any intention to do so.

The good people of Farragut will make their decisions.

I do have a lot of questions for Mr. Johns. We have a trauma 3 center on Lovell and Parkside Dr, why do we need helo pad? Protect our borders? What is that craziness, we are a small town, what are we protecting ourselves from? When has he set up meetings with Knox County about bike patrols. Farragut has low crime and we are allocated police support based on that. If he believes we need more, who is funding? Property tax? He can write 25 pages of what he's gonna do but is it executable? Why do I put my trust in someone that thinks public office is a joke? Why do I give my vote to a man who's consulting firm doesn't net much

Deborah Phillips Agree! It wasn't always this way when we disagreed. Back in 2015, Mayor McGill disagreed with us on Smith Road Apartments. Many called him names and worse. Yet, when I reached out and asked for an exception to the speaking rules for the FMPC he gave me 20 minutes and allowed me to put a PowerPoint presentation up for all in the room to see.
